We're Celebrating the 50-Year Anniversary of DeRosa Corporation. Cheers to you, Joe!

In 1972, Joseph DeRosa opened the first Chancery Pub & Restaurant on Highway 20 in Racine, Wisconsin. The atmosphere was friendly and fun, characterized by the stained glass tiffanies, copper bar, and peanut shells on the floor. Encouraged by the success of the first restaurant and the urging of Chancery customers, Joe built seven more Chancery locations from 1975-1998. Each of these restaurants was unique in décor and personality.

Since EVERYONE asks where the name "Chancery" came from... Joe says he pulled it right out of Roget's Thesaurus because "The name just sounded good. It means 'the king's conscience'." He said marketing people have tried to make something out of it, but it means nothing. To all of us, "Chancery" simply means "Home."
